

IMPARTATION: MANTLE / OIL

BEFORE MY CAVE TRAINING

First Impartation

Before September 2005

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

There was a detail that took place before my Cave training when I lived in South Florida. I was still learning about the Great King and His love for me in “baby” ways, yet Yahweh still made His purpose clear for me to know without a doubt that He had truly given me this work.

The first impartation took place at a local church. Engaging the spirit realm was everyday living for me—to deal with thoughts and visions and dreams of spirit dealings even when this servant was in Satan’s service with an evil turning away. But I did not expect to have a service mantle placed upon me.

I was serving Yahweh and hoped to get a close way of touch in Him. The plan was to drink a spiritual river to fill this yearning for more in His goodness. I was at the altar in that church building, waiting. But waiting there was a good thing. What took place was a power plan in the first anointing, an impartation where the Great Holy Spirit made it so that the servant was able to feel the weight of the mantle being placed upon me.

There, while I waited for a human to pray with me, Yahweh placed a service mantle on my shoulders. It truly felt like a natural material was placed upon me, covering my shoulders to my lower back. I turned and checked for an usher because the action felt natural, as if an usher covered me. But I looked and saw that no one was near me.

When back in my seat, I felt a liquid being poured over my head, down my face. The pouring upon my face felt so real that the servant often had to touch her face to confirm that it was only in the spirit realm of taking place and not a natural detail. The Great Way looked at the vessel in a ready way to serve Him, to say He will use me.

It was a mantle and an anointing in oil, the first impartation.

Thank You, Great King, for Your power impartation. Your plan is with me, deep within, and confirms within me, Your true purpose. May Your name be lifted to a place of true glory and honor in the earth way. In the name of the Great Way King Jesus, I gain real seeing purpose. Amen. Amen. Amen.
