

EVIL WITHIN THE VINEYARD

Cave Training, Kodiak, Alaska

Stage One / Entry Five

How do I keep loving others when they display Satan's nature?

The answer is very easy: Turn and drink in Yahweh's plan. But implementing the action requires faith and trusting Yahweh to handle plans that must come forward into natural ways of engagement.

Today was a different way of training in the unseen. My vision has shifted, where I see the significant impact that words would have on a person. The Great Holy Spirit revealed a powerful detail: The words you speak will either produce death or life. I knew of this Scripture, yet I did not fully understand. There are not enough words that will enable me to speak in the plan to fully state what this servant of the Lord Most High learned this evening.

The time in this evening's training began with the Great Holy Spirit, allowing me to drink His wisdom, so there would be a way to embrace what He would reveal to me this day. I had a vision in my spirit that enabled me to see the plan moving against me. The house walls where I was sleeping that day had what seemed to look like vines from a vineyard, and they were in the walls themselves.

These were not typical vines or any natural material but spiritual vines, producing evil fruit against me. The vineyard was growing in the walls of my natural dwelling. The vineyard was living a plan that would kill me if it wasn't for the blood of King Jesus that was a seal in the room in the spirit realm. The blood of King Jesus kept the vineyard of evil from pushing through to get to me.

What was truly the detail in the vineyard? It was all evil words spoken against me by people who moved to speak against the way of the Great King Jesus. These were words spoken that produced evil results in a vineyard that made its way into the home where we were meeting in this detail to teach me how a person's words have a strong surging of life or death in their moving.

The blood of King Jesus was a great shield; it was all that was needed to put up a force field against the demonic spirit moving against me.

There would be many who would truly not drink the insight given to me by the Great King Jesus due to not thinking that words could have so much power to produce an effect such as death. But here is a thought for you to seek the Great Holy Spirit concerning: There was a Scripture that I thought of when this took my attention. It referred to the time when King Jesus walked the earth in His earthly ministry.

King Jesus wanted some fruit from a tree there, but the tree didn't produce any fruit at that particular time. But this did not keep the Great King in this where He didn't still want some. The Great King said some Words, moving to curse the fig tree so that it would never produce any fruit, and His Words shifted the natural tree to where the tree withered from the root to death itself. This is Yahweh, we know, who spoke these words that cursed the fig tree. We cannot create life or death, speak words to bring anything into existence, for humans are not given God-traits that create.

How could words push this, where they are spoken to bring an action plan in the natural? Demonic influences will push that plan for humans that crave to bring others harmful surgings.

Eternal life is freely given to those who will drink it through the Great King Jesus, for He is Life. How much time is spent speaking words of death, hate, and gossip against people whether we know them or not?

Now, the Great Holy Spirit also showed me what would take place in the unseen when words that bring death are spoken: People were deeply wounded or killed due to words formed into actions carried forward by demons. I saw spiritual knives going into people. Spiritual darts and arrows were going into people. People were wounded due to battle attacks from those on the same team.

At the same time, in the vision, I saw people in the church pews labeled with the word "gossip." The people gossiped against their church leaders. Bad fruit from the vineyard wrapped around church pastors or leaders due to many speaking rumors, hate, gossip against their leadership. Verbal abuse suffocated ministers due to words spoken against them. These words of abuse hinder real freedom.

Your words will flow out as a weapon—to bring destruction to either plan—to bring death or to bring a person life. This is not new age or word of faith. This relates to spiritual Kingdom order. As mentioned, speaking death or life does not relate to being of a creator nature. Only Yahweh can create. Speaking certain words relates to a building up or tearing down of a person. And then spirit beings bring outlets to influence a person to turn them a certain way.

But what is the plan to move to stop this way of death? How do you walk in freedom from this way of demon influence? Surely, you do not think that a demon would not play a role, for their nature would be to speak a will to take a person away from the life-giving detail that stems from King Jesus. Spirits will move to influence you to speak a will to bring hate and gossip into the atmosphere to move to bring outlets of damage to a person or nation.

How to truly walk in actions to bring life would take first knowing King Jesus, who is Life. Knowing King Jesus means being connected to Him through relationship, where you are a true Kingdom citizen, where you have made King Jesus your Lord and Savior. This connection will bring life within, where you will live connected to God's eternal life, not death in eternal separation from the Great King Jesus.

Life can only come from the Great King Jesus. His Word is a living, moving detail that is a way to protect against the enemy in this detail. When you speak, you can counteract the words of death with pure Words of life from the Word of the Great King. Move to know this so you can drink His will to give to others that will enable them to walk in freedom from words spoken against them. Counteract a death moving with the Words of the Great King. Speak words of life instead of moving in human emotion.

You will drink in whatever way you move to place your guard down. I saw where people would take off their spiritual armor for various reasons. Some would fall asleep, no longer looking to keep safe from the devil's scheme. But when you spiritually fall asleep and take your focus off the Great King Jesus, the moving to attack you could bring a moving to complete a word against you, to destroy you. Don't let your armor sit on the floor. Put the armor of God on each day. With Yahweh's armor, you have a way to keep protected from the blows of the enemy when he moves to do his evil way through humans.

Now you have a deeper way to know what occurs when words are spoken to bring a way of death to a person. This will make me truly see the importance of speaking those details that bring healing power from the Great King. Let's go deeper into the next lesson. Stay close to the Great King and His will for your soul, mind, and all parts within. Until next time.
